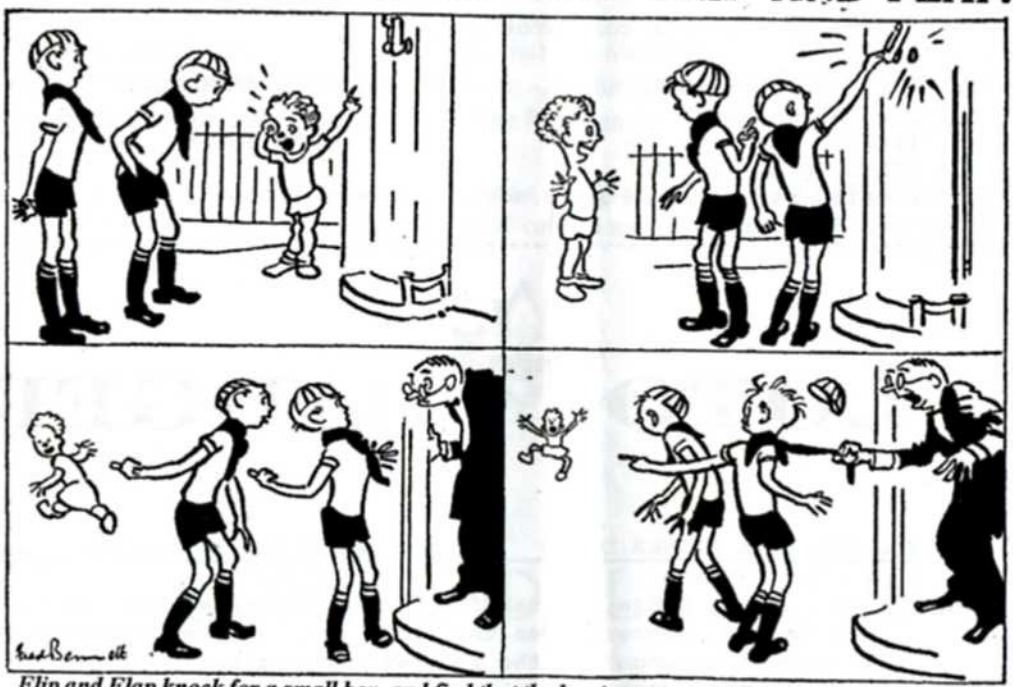
THE CANADIAN BADGER

THE ADVENTURES OF CUBS FLIP AND FLAP.



Flip and Flap knock for a small boy, and find that the boy is not too small to play practical jokes.

EDITORIAL:

Dear Fellow Badgers November 30, 2007

I wish to thank Mike Henley C0030 for sending me the covers that I have been using for the last couple of Years. Also Harold Daw IBC 405/89 for sending the CJ'07 badge list.

A question was asked by a member - "In the badger magazine we show all sorts of new items, however it does not advise a member on how to obtain one for their collection" - I can only suggest that you try and contact a member that lives in the area to see if they have one to trade. I know that some of the Scout Shops will sell via the mail but not all of them do. Anyone with any other suggestions please let the editor know for inserting in a future magazine.

Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to all.

Hello Fellow Badgers

From the "Prez"...

2007 and the 100th anniversary of scouting is almost over. The Prez, with wife's blessing, attended five major scouting events, a Vancouver Badge swap, the Montreal swap meet, PJ07, CJ07 and the B.C. badge swap. The awe inspiring CJ07 sunrise ceremony arranged by Mike Reid was the highlight of my year and a highlight of my scouting life, so a large thanks to you Mike. One can only hope that the leaders and youth in the next 100 years will continue to follow the path set for us by BP and find their own scouting highlights.

Badge-wise, I was pleased to see all the new CJ jamboree badges being listed in the magazine. Hopefully, for next issue we will have a complete listing of all known CJ07 items, just so you jamboree collectors will know what to look for. Now the task is to try and locate somebody that has them for trade, Montreal is on my list as a place to look, is it on yours?

A rumor heard, but not confirmed, that the Manitoba Council might just be going back to a "district" type of badge and name. Of course, they will use up the stock of those wonderful service area issues first but The Prez can hardly wait this development.

It is my tradition, in the last magazine of the year to wish all a MERRY CHRISTMAS and a happy and healthy NEW YEAR and of course some small pieces of coloured cloth in your stocking.

In Scouting,

Frank D. Smith

ASC JAMBOREE ENVOLEE 2007 NEWS

We had a great week filled with lots of sunshine and dry weather. The kids had a grand time with all the activities we had set for them, including the ceremonies and special trips during the week. We managed in receiving four thousand three hundred participants to come and celebrate with us the One Hundred Anniversary of Scouting. August first we all participated in the Sunrise Ceremonies on Parliament Hill in Ottawa, with our brothers from Scouts Canada. All participants were bused to some Schools and Museums the night before for a sleep over to facilitate in the morning walk to the Hill. It was very nice and the weather was again favourable for us, everyone had a great time but many were tired due to having to get up that early in the morning. All in all we had a great week and one to remember for years to come. During the week Sylvain Vallieres and myself represented the Canadian Badgers Club at the Trading Post. There was lots of trading going on and some excellent badges to be had by all who participated.

Many members donated badges some left me their names as asked others haven't, so to avoid not crediting someone I'll not include any names here. But at this time on behalf of all the kids present at the Jamboree we would like to thank The Canadian Badgers Club and it's Members for all the badge donations we received. The kids had a good time playing the different games and participating in the treasure hunt. Following my explanations before their schedule starting times, they were told that the badges were donations from the Canadian Badgers Club Members and a gift for every kid who participated in any of these games. You've should of seen their faces light up smiling and everyone said thanks which I now pass back on to you. We would also like to wish everyone a good Scouting year ahead, with many new adventures and a great time for all. Being that this article is in the December issue we will take this time in wishing everyone a;

MERRY CHRISTMAS AND A HAPPY NEW YEAR

Again many thanks to one and all, hope you have an excellent year ahead and many Jamboree stories to share.

Yours in Scouting & Friendship

BADGE HISTORY

BC I.2a

The emblem of the Islands Region, BC is the lightning snake, a leading character in one of the most important legions of the Nootka peoples. They call him Hai-Etlik, pronounced hite-lick. In the Nootka lore the most prominent involve Thunder Birds whom they call Tootooch and the Killer Whale, called Skana. They usually associate Hai-Etlik, who is his closest friend and messenger. Hai-Etlik always goes with Tootooch in his search for food, to help in killing the prey. Because the Nootkas are the only native peoples who live entirely in the Islands Region, and because the legion of the lightning snake is found only in Nootka lore, Hai-Etlik was chosen as the symbol of the region.

CJ'07 Pin Report

This years' Canadian Jamboree was a bit of a disappointment for us pin collectors. There were very few CJ pins for trade as the vast majority of Councils and Groups went with a badge only for trade. Even among the Provincial Council's, the only pin was from the Province of Quebec. Here is a listing of all the pins that were seen at the Jamboree to the best of my knowledge:

Official Scout's Canada Pins sold at the Trading Post:

- Official Pin (matching the badge)
- Toucs Mascot Pin
- Pins of all the Sub Camps (flexible coloured plastic, matching the badges) 9 in total

Others:

- Quebec Contingent Pin
- Connaught Ranges Subcamp (small round pin)
- Blue Springs Subcamp Challenge Pin (youth challenge award)
- CJ'07 Thank you pin for adult Volunteers
- Canadian Badgers Club
- K of M Pin (this was for the King of Mafeking program activity. Given to those who completed the various activity stations at this program activity. Pin is black background in the shape of a shield and the K and M in red.
- Maritime Train Contingent (For those groups from NS and NB that traveled to the Jamboree on Via Rail)
- London Ont. (Same design as CJ'01, Scout Fleur de Le in pewter. Very few around this time, as not many from London ordered any for trade)
- Voyageur Council Contingent Pin
- Owasco Group Pin (probably the hardest to find, very few in camp)

As you can see, a very short list compared to previous Jamborees. Hopefully there will be more interest the next time CJ comes around.
