

THE CANADIAN BADGER

EDITORIAL:

Dear Fellow Badgers

March 18, 1992

I would like to thank those who sent in badge histories and other articles for the magazine. If it was not published in this issue, I have saved it for future issues. Please keep sending things to be put in the magazine as sometimes I have trouble finding enough material to fill all the spaces. Some times I only need a short article (1/4 page or less) to fill in on the bottom of a letter or article.

Some member have been writing inquiring about not having received their copies of the magazine when they thought it should have been out by then. So I will explain how the magazine is produced. With the help of John Ochitwa I put the magazine together here in the West from the material that the members sent in for publication. It is then sent to John Getgood in Ontario for printing and distribution. Usually this is done within a day or two of the date on my editorial. Delays occur when I do not get the masters back from the East before the deadline, or if for any reason they are held up at the printing and distribution end. I try to send the masters back to the East with in one week of receiving them or the deadline which ever occurred last.

Please address all correspondence to:

Just a little story about the badge below. Down the road from me about nine houses this retired scout leader who I had spoken to briefly, about Scouting in Mission. He had said that we should get together some time and talk; he mentioned he had some stuff in a drawer. We finally sat down one night and he explained how he had earned this war service badge. There many drives during the war; paper, rubber, aluminium and especially blood. As not everybody had a telephone in those days, his troop accepted the task of delivering the notices to regular blood donors as to when and where the clinics would be held. The scouts kept a record on a calendar of each day and the time spent. When the 100 hours was reached you recieved your badge, it also came in 200, 300, 400 hour increments.

It took just a little of my time and a little interest in local Scouting history with this older scout leader and I came away with not only this treasure, but also a MINT ORIGINAL FELT CJ49 BADGE!!!!!!!!!!!!. So, it doesn't always have to take a lot of dollars, just some diligent delving to find some very hard to find goodies.

Yours in Scouting

Dear Ray:

How many members of our club are aware that Canada has the oldest continually run Scout camp in the world? Since 1912 Tamaracouta Scout Reserve has offered the finest in facilities and program to thousands of youth and adult member alike.

This camp is set on 1000 acres in the Laurentian Mountains just north of Montreal and is considered by many to be one of the finest facilities of its kind.

In 1992, we will be celebrating 80 years of Scouting at Tamaracouta. To help celebrate, the Quebec Provincial Council's Camp Committee is asking the Badgers Club to help in putting together 80 years of history through memorabilia. What we need donated is anything Tamaracouta related. Crests, pennants, mugs, photos, certificates, pamphlets, Knights of Tamara articles, woggles, etc.

The memorabilia will be mounted and/or displayed for the big celebration. In case of duplication of items, duplicates will be donated to the Montreal Badge Auction and Swap Meet proceeds of which go to the World Brotherhood Fund.

Should you have anything to donate, kindly send them care of the above address. Should you require any further information on the celebration of the camp, write or call me at the same address.

Yours in Scouting

Doug Dilks

Pre -1968 Rank & Insignia Badges

PATROL LEADER HAT BADGES

Since Scouting's beginnings in the early 1900's to the program change in the late 60's, five distinct versions of the Patrol Leader's hat badge have been used in Canada.

- Figure 1. The earliest version was a two piece white/silver colored metal hat badge. The patrol leader wore both pieces on the front of his Stetson. The Second (or Corporal as he was called in the early days of Scouting) wore only the 2nd class scroll.
- Figure 2. In the mid 20's stars were added to the Fleur de Lis portion of the hat badge (the stars appeared on other scout badges much earlier than this).
- Figure 3. In the 1930's a new design was introduced. This type of badge remained in use in many parts of the British Commonwealth until the late 1960's.
- Figure 4. Rover Mates wore the Fleur de Lis portion of the badge over their "R-S" pin.
- Figure 5. Just prior to WWII a distinctly Canadian P.L.'s hat badge made by Scully of Montreal appeared. This design remained in use in Canada for almost 25 years and is the most common type.

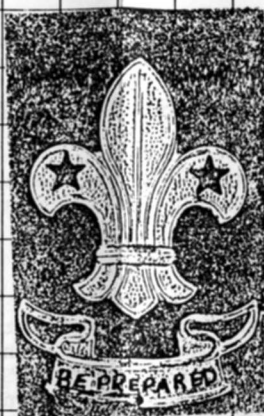

During WWII this style of P.L.'s hat badge was made of wood and bakelite in order to conserve metal.

At CJ'89 an authorized reproduction was available for trade. This item is quite easy to distinguish from the original in that it is considerably heavier having been "cast" rather than "stamped".

- Figure 6. The small P.L.'s hat badge appeared in about 1963 and was used until the new program and uniforms appeared. There is a plastic reproduction of this badge in existence.

CREE SASKATOON

In 1961, Saskatoon District was divided into 9 sub-districts. On April 20, 1961 it was decided that they should be given names that should be Indian. This is in keeping with the derivation of Saskatoon and Saskatchewan and, it is believed, will appeal to the boys. By November 1961, six of the sub-districts had names including: Apache, Blackfoot, Cree, Iroquois, Kootowan, and Sioux. On November 29, 1962 Saskatoon became a region and the sub-districts became districts. With the formation of the new region, came changes to the Saskatoon badge and the introduction of a number of new district badges.

Changes to the Saskatoon badge included: its name from SASKATOON DISTRICT (S.1) to SASKATOON REGION (S.3); its type from ribbon type to swiss embroidered; and the number of Saskatoon berries on the leaf went from 9 to 10 to represent the 10 parts of the Scout law.

The CREE District badge (C.2) was developed from an original native painting done by Mr. Wuttanee that was commissioned by the first Cree District Commissioner, Mr. Jim Hill. It depicts a Cree Indian wearing a traditional ceremonial headdress of porcupine quills with a single feather.

Initially the Cree badge was worn next to the Saskatoon Region badge, above the left shirt pocket, with the Cree Indian facing the leaf with the Saskatoon berries. As time went on, the Saskatoon Region badge was replaced first by the SASKATOON AREA badge (S.5), and then in 1977 by the NORTH SASKATCHEWAN REGION badge (N.2), at which time the district badges were moved to the right sleeve beneath the group badge. The new uniform of 1991 further moved the North Saskatchewan Region badge below the district badges on the right sleeve.

This year, a new version of the Cree district badge was developed in response to desires to both be more identifiable (with the inclusion of Saskatoon and Scouts Canada) and to better fit on the new uniform between the wider group and region badges. The new CREE SASKATOON badge is composed of a combination of the original Cree badge, The Saskatoon badge (with 10 berries), and the Scouts Canada maple leaf and Scout sign logo. Its colors represent all five Scouting sections (Beavers, Cubs, Scouts, Venturers, Rovers) and non-section Scouters. The current version (C.2/1) also includes "1962-1992" to commemorate the district's 30th anniversary. During this year's Guide-Scout Week, it was distributed for all members of Cree District to wear on their uniform, replacing C.2. It is the intention of the district to use the same design, minus the dates, as the district badge (C.2) in future years.

Swap Meet Reports

M.R.P.M. "SWAPAROO"

On Saturday, Feb.15, Maple Ridge Pitt Meadows District held our first "Swaparoo". For our first event of this nature it was an unqualified success. We would like to extend our thanks to the following Badgers Club members who brought out their displays and helped make the day so successful; John Ochitwa, Jim Munns, Dave McKeown and Chris Guedes. The variety and extent of some of their displays certainly awed some members of the local Scouting community.

In addition to the extensive trading that went on, there was two major events held during the course of the day. First was a "Loto Badger" (same as the one held in The Canadian Badger Magazine) which was won by Terry Campbell. In spite of some good natured harassment and plaintiff whines of "fixed" I would like to thank all those who entered and contributed to my collection.

The second major event of the day was our "Badge Auction". Through the generous contribution of many Club Members, including Stan Rodgers, John Ochitwa, Dave McKeown, Frank Smith, Chris Guedes and Terry Campbell as well as a non-club member Larry Goldsby, we were able to auction off 55 'lots' of badges raising $308.05 for the "World Brotherhood Fund".

We are hoping to make this an annual event and to that end planning is already under way for next year. Our goal is to draw more people out, increase the size of our contribution to the World Brotherhood Fund and to entice some additional club memberships (there were five applications given out this time).

So until next year, our sincere thanks to all those who came out and contributed to the success of this, our first M.R.P.M. "Swaparoo"!

Yours in Scouting,

Chris and Terry

HAMILTON-WENTWORTH FIRST SWAP MEET

On November 17th, 1991 at the Scout Shop for Hamilton-Wentworth Region held its first Scout Badge Swap Meet. Ten good souls attended and trading was done by all. Steve Klimek, Badger C0953, and myself wish to thank those who attended on such short notice. We are sorry for the lack of advertising before the meet.

Watch for advertising for the "Second Annual Hamilton-Wentworth Swap Meet" to be held in November '92 in future "The Canadian Badger" issues.
