

THE CANADIAN BADGER

EDITORIAL:

Dear Fellow Badgers

March 24, 2001

Several members have sent me notices that some of the "B's" all of the "C's" and some of the "D's" were missing from the new membership list. I still haven't figured out why my computer missed printing them. I have included a two page pull out addendum with the missing members please put it in your directory so that you will have it for future reference.

Every member is allowed one "Wants and Swaps" ad yet no one sent any in for this edition of the magazine.

I am running low on material to use as fillers in the magazine, how about sending in badge histories, articles about trading events in your area or anything else that might be of interest to other members.

Please address all correspondence to:

Hello Fellow Badgers

From the "Prez" . . .

Well, we are less than six months from CJ01 and there are some things needing attention before we fly in. For the newer members of our club, our National Jamboree is quite important for us as a club because it is the one time every four years where we get a chance for a large percentage of club members (sixty-five in Thunder Bay) to get together. Here we hold a general meeting, hold our elections and get a chance to discuss in an open forum national and club concerns. So if you going to the jamboree, try and be at the meeting. It will be posted as to date, time and location as soon as possible at the jamboree.

Preparation for our general meeting is one of my tasks. As president it is expected that I, as well as other members of the executive, make a report (a subtle hint to all that is required to make a report) as well as to formulate an agenda. Please find elsewhere in the magazine a tentative agenda for the meeting. We have a certain amount of business which has to be handled such as elections, reports, etc. but there is also time allotted for members to bring up problems, or new ideas, or suggestions. or? Now is the time to contact me if you want it on the agenda. One short evening just does not give enough time for everybody to speak randomly, so if it is something you want to see discussed, speak now as the night of the meeting, on the site, is short notice. Also keep in mind elections, as all positions are up for reelection, so again DO IT NOW!

Saturday, April 28, 2001 is the 24th annual Montreal swap meet and auction. Denis is looking for some donations to help "The World Brotherhood of Scouting." This is a good cause, over the years a great deal of money has been donated from the auction, so look in your swap stuff and send Denis some items. And as a special treat, the wife has allowed me to go, so my bags are packed and the Prez will see you in Montreal!

In Scouting,

Frank.
