Happy Badging!

DEADLINE FOR SUBMISSIONS TO THE JUNE ISSUE:

SEND IN YOUR ARTICLES, ADVERTISEMENTS AND LETTERS!

Dear Fellow Badgers;

Already it's March of 2014 and at this point the year is almost 25% complete! This time last year we were gearing up for CJ'13; making sure all the arrangements for the trip were complete, the right gear was packed, and all of the badges to be traded were stowed in a safe, secure place!

My sincerest apologies for the late delivery of the December magazine, as well as the confusion for those of you who received a printed copy rather than a digital copy. There were some challenges with converting the mailing list from one program to another which caused the problem. With this, the first issue of 2014, all of these mistakes should be corrected.

2015 will mark the 40th Anniversary of our great club. I would like to suggest to the membership that we must celebrate this remarkable milestone and a special anniversary badge could be one way. Send in your suggestions for a badge design, or some other memento and we will put them into the next magazine for everyone to consider.

There have been plenty of suggestions for the magazine, and one of them will debut in this issue. It has been asked that varieties with reproduced badges and their real counterparts be shown in the magazine. This issue will have one of these well known reproductions from Ontario – Cochrane District, both front and back sides of the badges for easier identification.

I hope you have had a great winter and that Spring of 2014 will usher in a fun season of renewal and more new badges to trade!

Yours in Badging,

Anthony Palmer

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Hi Anthony:

As per the 14 World Moot that was written on page 5 of the Volume 38, Number 4, December 2013 Canadian Badger Magazine, I too also did service at this Moot (I worked in the General Store) and finally, this World Moot is the first one in Canada, but it is not the first one in North America. Mexico hosted the 11 World Moot in 2001.

Robert Heath.

Hi Anthony

I like the new club magazine with all the info and now color scans of the new badges, you did a great job with this. I looked over the part article on the World Canada Rover Moot 2013 and in it it's asking who was with me on the service team. My Scout Museum team consisted of Paul Deryaw, Scott Berry and myself. Participants to the Moot were represented by ninety countries worldwide and over four thousand strong came together for this event.

We had a very busy schedule, opening at eight in the morning (some days sooner) and going on all day until ten pm at night. Lots of badge trading and many other scouting articles changed hands during the week. The daily and nightly entertainment was very lively with many countries putting on shows and displays from their cultures. At the World Day event all the countries participated with many activities during the day. At night we had a community diner, so the staff team, Paul, Scott and myself helped serve the food to all the participants. We had everyone served within in a little more then an hour, not bad considering the turnout.

All in all we had a great week, with lots of memories to talk about for years to come. We had many positive feedbacks from the participants on the displays we had, lots of questions to answer and presentations of both the Scouts Canada and ASC museums. We had a display board up so everyone could see all the different contingent badges from the countries present. We also received an official flag from the Moot on the promise to have it signed by as many participants as possible during the week. We manage to get about eighty percent on our visitors to the museum to sign it. Then we had pictures taken with it, had it flown on cultural day, finally given to us to put up in the Belleville Scout Museum for all visitors to see.

We would do this again anytime and we are presently looking at participating at a ASC Jamboree this summer. I will send you the newsletter with the article that was written by the staff member that came and visited us.

Rheal Duchesne

Hello Fellow Badgers,

From the “Prez”...

Brrr, as I write this, winter seems to have all of Canada in its icy grasp. I look past the bare cottonwood trees to the mighty Fraser River. For the second time this winter it is frozen over; once is unusual but twice in the same winter is almost unheard of. Not frozen solid enough to walk or skate on but still side to side it is white. And our local banana trees are having a chilly time of it! But oh, the quality badging time by the fire!

I am looking forward to seeing as many of you as possible in Montreal at the end of April for the Denis Charbonneau Memorial auction and swap meet. (April 25-26) It is our largest badge auction and trading event of the year. If you have never been or it has been a few years this would be a good year to attend. This a time to meet up with old friends and say hello to new ones, plus of course to dig in the boxes and bags of badges looking for unique scouting items.

I am also asking on behalf of the club and the World Brotherhood Fund, take a look through your swap box and please send some badges for the auction. Mike Assef is the man who is collecting items, so send your donations to him.

As we all know the December issue of the club magazine was our newly elected editor's first produced magazine and Anthony deserves thanks for a job well done. The format and the layout are good and the magazine contained some new aspects especially the front page, contacts page and the little added clip art.

Stay warm and plan to meet up with the Prez in Montreal.

In Scouting,
Frank D. Smith.

Badge Chatter - By: Gordon Ennis

Greetings from the cataloguer! Once again many club members have brought new issues to the attention of me and the Regional Badge Representatives. I say a special thank you, given his untimely passing, to Frank Kramar who once again had brought new issues to my attention. You will be missed, Frank. Among other club members I have heard from regarding badges are Rheal Duchesne, Karl Kern and Everett Dalmas. My apologies to those not personally mentioned here.

One thing you will note is that I am now listing the new badges and new finds in a column called Varieties Catalogue Updates. Previously we had a column called "Catalogue Changes and Additions" and another column called "Badge Updates" but the information was the basically the same. In the last issue of the magazine, our Editor, Anthony, reduced the information to one column and as there was no feedback provided to me I am keeping it that way, but with the more descriptive title mentioned above.

I have spent lots of time on the main Varieties Catalogue the last several weeks. One thing you will notice when it arrives is that all those missing codes (representing delisted badges) are now filled in. This is largely thanks to the incredible information that Anthony Palmer has gleaned over the years especially from the late Badger Bill Neil. As a couple of examples, if you look at your existing catalogue you will not see any badge listed against B.C. C.19. That badge was Clinton Creek but was delisted when it was discovered to be a group badge. Similarly, one might wonder whatever happened to ONT. C. 8. That was Caledonia determined to be a group badge and again delisted. There are many, many examples like this. Although not consistent the catalogue has tended to skip delisted badge references rather than reassigning them. The new Varieties Catalogue has now provided information on what badges have been delisted and why so you can now see what that missing codes referred to.

Another big effort on the catalogue was updating extinct badge information. With so much amalgamation going on of existing areas there has been lots of change and those changes were not always caught. While relatively easy to note if an area went extinct it has proven more difficult to determine what area merged with what to form new districts and this is one type of information the catalogue has traditionally supplied. The Service Areas in Manitoba are one case in point where mostly districts that went extinct were caught but contrary to the norm the catalogue usually did not mention what districts were merged to form the Service Areas. This effort points out what a resource the badge catalogue is in tracking the history of scouting and its districts and areas across Canada. All that information is at our fingertips in the Varieties Catalogue.

In a sense I wish we could wait longer for the Varieties Catalogue as big changes are in progress but not yet to the point where the catalogue can fully capture them. I suppose that is always the way. One example is the ASC portion of the Catalogue where information supplied to me indicates that the ASC listings will shrink to 10 districts. We saw two of the new ASC districts listed in December. One of those, M.10. SCOUTS DE LA MONTÉRÉGIE was listed as a rolled edge, it is really a cut edge badge – sorry. This issue of The Canadian Badger lists a third new district; “OUEST” and it deserves special mention. We gave it a new coding, ASC O.12 because the geographic area of OUEST changed dramatically and it is now a district rather than a federation badge (all federations and their badges went extinct years ago). Even on the badge it mentions C-B (BC to Anglophones), AB, SK and MB. In addition it mentions Yukon, Northwest Territories (TNO) and Nunavut! This must be the greatest geographic coverage (even if not numerical numbers) of any district badge. Stay tuned for more new ASC badges to come.

There are also changes happening in Northern Ontario, Prince Edward Island, Newfoundland and other Scouts Canada councils as well. At this time, like the ASC districts, these changes are a work in progress so only partially captured. Many of us who are still active Scouters will have heard from Scouts Canada that the next Canadian Jamboree will be in 2017. It looks like we are back to a four year rotation after brief talk of a three year rotation. 2015 will see three Councils hosting a jamboree so we seem to be, after changes in 2007, back in a nice rotation between Council and National jamborees. So, this gives us a whole year to trade old jamboree badges before we gear up for new ones.

Anyway, this will be a short Badge Chatter so I can get back to concentrating on getting the Varieties Catalogue to our editor for spiffing up and distribution. Two examples of Saskatchewan, ASC S.10. are shown below with one badge having horizontal stitching in the red sun and other vertical stitching. Usually we have given separate listings to such differences but not for ASC S.10. I am told this was because it was not certain there was more than one badge with vertical stitching. We now know of at least three badges so we will ponder a catalogue change to make “a” and “b” issue of ASC S.10. Does anyone else have both types of Saskatchewan?

I thank all who bring new badges to my attention. Keep it up! Please contact me with your finds at: ennisgl@telus.net Once again I would like to thank the club's regional reps: Bill Thow, Anthony Palmer, Everett Dalmas, Tom Evanoff, Dave Winter, Richard Nahorniak and Serge Janelle. I have kept these reps. especially busy of late as we get the latest edition of the Varieties Catalogue ready – thanks for bearing with me guys!

B.C. Badge Report

B.C. & Yukon Badge Report

March. 2013

Badge Rep; Bill Thow

With Spring just around the corner (hopefully), we are looking for more new high definition issues to come out across the country.

B.C. & Yukon issues are all out and there have been only a few minor color changes in some of the newer runs. The only exception was the Burnaby Area where major color changes warrant a new variety listing. Colors are much darker and brighter is the newest issue.

As usual any Anniversary badges have been very difficult to obtain. Even I have not been able to lay my hands on any of the last two. The latest being the 100year of Scouting from the Yukon.

For those collecting Proficiency badges; should watch eBay. I have noticed a larger number than usual of older proficiency badges up for bid. Prices are quite high but if you need them for your collection, who's to say what is high?

As always I am looking to make trades with anyone interested. I have many B.C. & Yukon districts, regions, Councils and Area badges to trade for badges from other provinces. Just drop me an email.

Yours in Scouting & Collecting,

Bill Thow

Badgefest 2013-14 is a four part “Seminar/Swap Meet” being organized in Buffalo Plains Area, Northern Lights Council. The four parts to Badgefest 2013-14 are:

1. What are badges, how are badges made, what is badge collecting?
2. Are there rules for trading? Fair trading, why we trade badges, the rules for fair badge trading.
3. How do I show off my badges? Display techniques, campfire blankets, binders, frames, etc.
4. Where does this badge thing go from here? Jamborees, swap meets, developing and furthering your collection, badge clubs.

For Badgefest 2013-14, there a badge for each seminar/swap meets with its own coloured border. Badgefest #1 is green, #2 is red, #3 is yellow and #4 is blue. We are hopeful that the coloured borders keep Scouts and Scouters coming out to all four Badgefests!

Badgefest #2 was scheduled for Sunday, January 19, 2014 and was a terrific success with 14 Wolf Cubs, Scouts and Scouters in attendance. There were many badges there and I was able to even fill a hole in New Brunswick!

Badgefest #3 is scheduled for Sunday March 23, 2014 at St. Albert United Church, St. Albert, Alberta. For more information please visit us on Facebook:

A couple of the finds at Badgefest #2. You never know what will appear!

Reproduced badges. No one knows for sure why (greed? desperation?) someone would reproduce something like a badge, but there have been several badges unethically reproduced over the years.

Most recently a whole crop of poorly reproduced badges were found on eBay. For those of us lucky enough to have actually held or seen some of the more valuable or rare specimens of Canadian badges, the inadequacies of these reproductions were obvious and laughable. That being said, there were some collectors who were duped by these reproductions and bought them on eBay.

Over the next few issues I will put some of these reproductions into The Canadian Badger as a source for all to see!

Badger Gord Says Lets Trade! Hi, I have lots of badges to trade from Canada, The Pacific Islands, New Zealand, Australia and many more places. Have a look at my website at www.scoutbadges.ca. It's a bit out of date but most Can. traders are still available as well as many not listed. If you have an Alberta, Edmonton Riverside strip please contact me. I'm interested! I can trade other Edmonton strips for it and even throw in some other badges as well like that new Yukon anniversary badge.
