DEADLINE FOR SUBMISSIONS TO THE JUNE ISSUE:

SEND IN YOUR ARTICLES, ADVERTISEMENTS AND LETTERS!

Dear Fellow Badgers,

I would like to extend my great appreciation and thanks to Steve Kavanagh, Ken Cates and Ray Crowther for their help in completing the Canadian Badger magazine archive. All issues of the Canadian Badger can now be found on the Club website in the Canadian Badger's Club forum: www.canadianbadgersclub.com. Take a look, there are some neat things in those old magazines!

For our 40th Year, I thought it would be prudent to use the original magazine cover. The four issues of the 2015 year will be graced with this marvellous design. I say this tongue-in-cheek not to be a 'smart ass' but as a way to show how far we have come: not just in badges, catalogues, and badge collecting as a whole, but in technology, Scout-craft and Scouting in general.

On the note of Scouting in general, since CJ'13 I have become more and more disillusioned with the direction and future of Scouts Canada. The recent segregation of an Area in a Scouts Canada Council is the final straw, and after much soul searching and reflection I have decided to leave Scouts Canada.

This decision affects more than just my tenure with Scouts Canada, it also affects my status as a member of The Canadian Badgers Club. Section 3.0 of the Club's Bylaws states: "Membership is open to any registered member of any recognized Scout or Guide Association of any country upon payment of the required dues.". I believed that since I will no longer be involved with Scouting, I can no longer be a member of our Club.

Not wishing at all to resign from the Club, I did in fact tender my resignation to the Club Executive stating Section 3 of the Bylaws as the reason, with my tenure ending 1 September, 2015. However, with the permission of the executive through Section 6, Subsection 5 of the Club's Bylaws, I will be staying on as Editor and Prairie Region Representative to maintain continuity within these important roles.

One of my areas of involvement within the Club I would like to pass on as soon as possible concerns the web hosting, website and management thereof. As owner of the intellectual property (badge images, etc) and domain name (www.canadianbadgersclub.com), I could force the Club to purchase both the domain and intellectual property at whatever price I choose. To ensure that this situation never arises in the future, I have presented the Club Executive with the opportunity to assume the webhosting, control of the website, and ownership of the intellectual property contained within the website.

I am sure that there will be someone who is interested in taking over the role of webmaster while the Club pays for the web hosting directly and retains the ownership of the domain and aforementioned intellectual property. There is also the need for someone to maintain the Facebook page and group. If you are interested in stepping up to the small challenge of Facebook admin and/or the larger challenge of Webmaster, please contact me or our Club President, Frank Smith.

I would like to continue collecting badges and I hope all of you will be willing to swap by mail and keep me up to date with the new badges as they come out. Since neither of my children will have involvement with Scouts Canada, I am presently selling off badges on eBay to clean up some of the stuff I have accumulated over the years; both swaps and collection pieces. I do not have any desire to sell my main collection and I appreciate not being questioned on that matter.

I hope that you, the membership, can understand my decision; it was not made lightly. And to you all, I remain,

Yours in Scouting and Friendship,
Anthony Palmer, Editor
C0882

from the prez!

Hello Fellow Badgers,

From the "Prez"...

I would like to take this opportunity on behalf of the Canadian Badgers Club (and myself) to congratulate Chris Green C1053 of Prince Rupert, B.C. Chris received the Civic Appreciation Award conferred on her by Prince Rupert expressing gratitude for services and contribution that she has provided to the youth of Prince Rupert since 1950. Well Done Chris!

A copy of the newspaper article can be found on page 7. - ed.

Be sure to mark your calendars for the Montreal swap meet in April and both the B.C. and N.S. jamborees in July.

As you may or not know, the Prez collects Australian scout badges and has been trading with an old scouter in Perth, Western Australia for many years. Recently, after sending him a number of our "new" woven issues, he asked if the Badgers Club had a list of all of these new issues. Not really, I replied and then thought to make such a list before it grew too large. I missed a few on my first attempt but I think it is accurate now.

Up to and including our last magazine of December, 2014, I count one hundred and thirty-two:

32 British Columbia	20 Alberta	3 Saskatchewan	3 Manitoba
52 Ontario	6 Quebec	1 New Brunswick	4 Nova Scotia
5 Newfoundland & Labrador		6 National

CANADIAN BADGERS CLUB

The DENIS CHARBONNEAU MEMORIAL SWAP MEET & AUCTION

Come one, come all. If you've never been to the Montreal Swap Meet, now is your chance. This will be the 38th year and it'll be better than ever. You'll never have to leave the comfort of the hotel <http://www.hotelsavings.com/booking/1006102>. Great accommodations, good food and if you wish to partake in some liquid refreshments, that too. Fantastic badge trading starts the minute you get there. Don't forget the annual Saturday night feast at Chenoy's <http://www.chenoys.com>

Now I need to pick your pockets. All the badges that we auction off come from donations from you. We need more help this year than ever before. The stock that was left to us from Denis' estate will not keep us going forever. Last year, 95% of everything donated to the auction came from only about 6 members. We need more support from everyone if we are to meet our goal of surpassing last year's total of $4,192.00 which was donated to the World Brotherhood Fund. We need to be proud of the fact that over the years, the total the club has donated is $83,532.00

The hall will be ready for everyone's arrival April 24th at 4:00pm until 9:00pm and reopen at 9:00am, April 25th, 2015 so mark your calendars early.

Eight honoured with civic recognition awards

BY MARTINA PERRY
PRINCE RUPERT / The Northern View

Eight Prince Rupert residents received Civic Recognition Awards last week, acknowledging their outstanding achievements in the community.

Mel Bishop was bestowed with the Civic Merit Award, recognizing his work with youth through basketball. The award is given to individuals who bring distinction to the community with outstanding achievements in a variety of areas.

"Your sharing of knowledge and skills specifically helped them to take charge of their lives, giving them a solid foundation through which to channel their energy and better themselves, and reach other achievements during their lives," reads the City of Prince Rupert's citation.

Civic Appreciation Awards were given to four Rupertites, expressing gratitude for services and contributions they have provided that have benefitted the community.

Chris Green was recognized for her extensive involvement with Prince Rupert youth.

"Your extensive involvement with Scouts Canada since 1950 and your numerous hours of volunteer service to our youth in the community are a testament that this award is truly well deserved. The efforts that you have shown by giving countless kids opportunities, knowledge and experience that they otherwise may have not had," states the city's citation.

Reggie Huskins received the award for his volunteer work.

"Over the years you have been an active participant in planning and fundraising with the Moose Lodge and other community groups such as the Rampage. You are seen amongst the city always promoting hockey and other community events," the citation reads.

Doug Kydd was recognized for his significant efforts to support the community at large and also for his work to better specific sectors of Prince Rupert.

"You have always been there with your organizational and communication skills, as well as a sense of humour, to reach out and lend a hand in facilitation of a community need," read the citation.

The final Civic Appreciation Award recipient was Pouyan Mahboubi for his work as head of the Department of Applied Coastal Ecology.

"For the last 18 years you have contributed in a significant way to the scientific, academic, social and economic development of Prince Rupert, demonstrating in your actions particular principles, such as honesty, kindness, perseverance and selfless spirit of service," the city's citation read.

Three members of the Prince Rupert Airport Authority were awarded with a Certificate of Appreciation, which recognizes individuals' contributions to a city-established committee or task force.

Diane Copperthwaite was recognized for her service as a director of the Airport Authority.

"Your ideas, input, and enthusiasm have been most helpful and have assisted in making valuable improvements," reads the citation.

Vice-president Shane Deinstadt also received the certificate.

"Your contribution to the board over the past 10 years has been immense and is sincerely valued," stated the citation.

The final recipient was Linda Marshall-Lutz, secretary-treasurer of the group.

"Your influences toward helping the organization meet goals have been abundant and productive," read the citation.

BADGER GORD'S

BADGER
CHATTER

Greetings from the cataloguer! Wow, 2015 already! But still the new badges come. Once again many club members have brought new issues to the attention of me and the Regional Badge Representatives. I have heard from John Butters, Barry Stuart, Glen Wright and Tom Evanoff. My apologies to those not personally mentioned here.

First I need to bring your attention to some errors in the last published catalogue. Rod Hill asked me about the coding for Ontario C.2 Chatham and Y.7 York Rouge. You might have noticed that the variety numbering was not consecutive there as it should have been. The issue here was that we were working with a very old and oddly formatted word file for the Varieties Catalogue and, even though the master was fine, when items were copied often the formatting changed. It drove me crazy and was the cause of the errors that Rod caught. Editor Anthony Palmer did a great job of transferring the file to a new Excel formatted document and as far as I can tell the problem no longer exists so hopefully the next edition will not have such errors. But, please if you notice any more oddities please bring them to my attention and I will check against my master to ensure it is correct.

Since the last issue the ASC continues its amalgamation of districts and this time Les Ailes du Nord is out with two other districts (Lanaudiere and Laurentides) going extinct as a result of the amalgamation that took place. Rheel Duchense shared with me an interesting fact on the ASC Monteregie badge. He found out that the second badge issued with the darker purple Fleur-de-lis was made as the district was not happy with the first one with the lighter shade of purple. They ordered the darker one to represent the darker purple in the World Scout badge. So while they did wear the first one we listed the second is the one they really wanted. So while you could debate the first being a manufacturer error it was accepted for a short period of time, worn on the uniform, and hence the listing will stay basically the same (only one variety but mentioning why the two shades of purple). Now you know. Thanks for the information Rheel.

In the last Badge Chatter I showed a South Shore (Quebec S.5.A) ribbon badges with a rounded Fleur-De-Lis on one badge and a pointed one on the other. I also indicated differences in sizes of the badges but noted one was used. I have now received feedback that mint versions of both types of South Shore badges are the same size. Given this information a note on the Fleur-De-Lis's will be made in the catalogue but there will be no coding changes as it does not meet the mark for that. So, now you know. And a good lesson on sizes of used badges for all!

Below is a new badge from Chinook Council that we have listed in this issue of the Magazine. Chinook is in the midst of adjusting the number of areas up from 12 to 19 and this is the first resultant badge I am aware of. Please note there might be some changes to the listing as the Council Commissioner is calling the area Calgary North LDS whereas the badges says Calgary Northwest LDS. This is why I am bringing this up in Badge Chatter rather than simply listing it. For now I will call the badge Area Calgary Northwest LDS but that might change-time will tell.

Peeter Tammark has kept the Badge Committee busy with a number of badge variations he has found. You will see some of them from Manitoba listed in this issue of The Canadian Badger. Others will require notes. Some of the ones that will be done via notes include: MAN Seven Oaks S.1.B with a yellow vs gold border; MAN St. Boniface S.7.A with a silver (slightly silver at that) rather than a white design; MAN Thompson T.5.C badge that has a tree touching the border whereas others do not—a binding issue?

One of the badges Peeter brought up that we did list was Manitoba T.4 Tuxedo. I am showing both versions here rather than just leaving you with the listing of the new one so the differences are very clear between a flag with a flag pole (T.4.A.) and one without (T.4.B.).

Sometimes I get badges or badge images sent to me that don't get listed because they are group badges. But you don't know until you ask the question. The photo on the left is of a Churchill group badge. There is also a diamond shaped group badge (not shown). The district badge has a white polar bear on a blue piece of ice and is square.

The following scan of NAT 4.A, the 1967 Centennial badge, is interesting in that the used one's width is so much smaller than the other. This could be just another example of a used and shrunken badge – and this was taken off a uniform used at the World Jamboree in Idaho - but maybe there are two sizes. I have about 50 of these badges and they are all the same size, some used ones are slightly smaller but nothing on this scale. Do you have any of the smaller issue in your stock? I require a mint one to be sure there are two sizes before I would list.

One badge deserving of a note is the Central Escarpment ONT C.15.A issue where we now have two depths of the escarpment. Not a new listing but an interesting variation to note.

And now a puzzle badge. Frank Smith shared a larger National 5.B, Latter Day Saints badge. The colour is different plus it is larger than the listed one. I show it along side a "normal" badge so you can get an idea of size and colour. Does anyone know anything about this badge?

I thank all who bring new badges to my attention. Keep it up! Please contact me with your finds or answers to questions at: ennisgl@telus.net Once again I would like to thank the club's regional reps: Bill Thow, Anthony Palmer, Everett Dalmas, Tom Evanoff, Dave Winter, and Serge Janelle. Again, if anyone else wants to assist with Quebec badges please let me know.

And, finally I would like to acknowledge Glen Wright's great service to the International Badgers Club, as its cataloguer. After many years Glen is in the process of stepping down from that post and taking a well-deserved break. Glen worked hard with me and my predecessor, Denis Charbonneau, to ensure consistency between the IBC and the Canadian Club. Thanks for your service and help, Glen. Now, even more time for you to work on your great Canadian collection as well as your badges from other countries.
