Greetings Fellow Badgers

There have been a few new badges released here on the east coast this past fall. I do have a question. How many of you have any part or all of your collection mounted for public display? If you do, would you mind the next time you have it set out on display take a couple of photos and email it to myself at president@canadianbadgersclub.com .I am looking for ideas on how to display some of my Collection. If I get enough photos I will speak to our editor about doing a feature on how we display our collections. As we near the end of 2018 I would like to take this time to wish everyone of you and your family a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year and safe Holliday season. (Hope fully you have all been good badgers and old St. Nick will be leaving you a bit of colourful cloth in your sock hung by the chimney with care.)

Hello Badgers

Let me apologize for being a bit tardy on getting this out to everyone. My youngest son's wedding was great and now they are back from their honeymoon in Hawaii. My grandpuppy sitting duties are over.

There are two badge histories in this issue that were sent to me. Unfortunately, when I saved them on my computer, I did not put the person's name with it.

I'll put this out there again. I am in need of stories, swap meet reports, badge histories, award presentations. Anything to make our magazine something everyone wants to read. Please send in Microsoft Word or text format. PDF's make it very hard That allows me to fit it into the magazine better.

Hope everyone has a fantastic Christmas,

Mike Assef

London Area Crest:

In 1957 a contest to design a new crest for London Scouting saw the creation of the current badge. Created by Patrol Leader Cliff Bilyea of the 22nd London Troop, the badge features the Y of the forks of the Thames, the trees to represent the Forest City and the castle to denote our history as a garrison town.

Mindaamin Crest History:

The background colour is the colour for the World Scout organization, as well as a special colour held in high regard to the Natives (a "Royal" colour).

The circle with the four spokes is a medicine wheel. Everything in nature must be in balance for things to work smoothly, as they are all interdependent.

The four spokes of the wheel, and the colours (red, yellow, black, and white) represent the major "races" of people through out the world.

The Fleur-de-lis, with it's 3 petals, represent corn, beans, and squash which were the major food crops for the natives, and also represented the essences of life (the three sacred sisters).

The spokes have seven beads, and there are also seven feathers. They are to represent the seven stages of ones life.

The colours of the feathers are to represent the sections of Scouting, with Blue for the Adults, and White for the Parents.

Last, but not least the name Mindaamin means corn in Ojibwa. It was the main crop that was used to sustain the natives through winter, it was one of their three main plants of life (sacred sisters), and it is also a major crop common through out the Mindaamin Area.

Back to Brotherhood Trade o Ree

Sept 21st was an unusual day in Ottawa. The Back to Brotherhood trading event was getting geared up for a great weekend of swapping cloth. Many traders had gathered from around Ontario for the event.

We were all set up and the trading had begun, but a storm was brewing. We had youth showing up to the event, but they were saying the drive was rough due to the increased traffic. We lost power at Scouts Canada HQ about an hour after we started. The trading continued by emergency lights as well as lanterns (Scouters can be resourceful). As it turned out, Ottawa was hit with a nasty storm which included several tornados touching down. There was chatter about shutting down the event, but we felt it would be a good distraction from everything that was going on. We moved from the Warehouse/Museum area to he Cafeteria area where we had plenty of windows and natural light to continue on. A hot dog lunch for everyone (as we did not get pizza Friday) was appreciated as there was nothing open in the west end of the city. Thanks to Eric Hansen from Scouts Canada for helping with the food and members of the Service Corps cooking and selling snacks for all.

We did not have as much traffic, but it was still a good event with more youth and traders attending than we expected. Kudos to Ron Antonio, Ed Lattimore, Paul Deryaw and Serge Janelle who drove from out of town for the event. Joe Vautour and Dave Rogers hung in there as well.

Ursula and I look forward to seeing as many of you as possible for our March Break trade event on March 8/9 weekend. For all those who came out to the September event and did not get your pizza, lunch will be on us.

LOWER MAINLAND SCOUT BADGE SWAPMEET

Ardent badge trader Linda Aug revived a long elapsed event, the B.C. lower mainland Badge Swap meet. Our last one was 2014 and it has been greatly missed. The event was held September 15th at the North Lonsdale United Church hall, North Vancouver. Twelve club members from as far away as Ontario (Robert Bowers), Alberta (John Witham) and Washington (Mitch Darden) joined the local BC collectors. Vancouver Island resident Kim Lanyon, despite the expensive BC ferries, came over from Victoria and brought a huge amount of items that required considerable amount of time to check out. I myself found many items including the last of the 2011 cub proficiency's I needed.

Great trading went on with hundreds of badges passing from one collector to another, many in the 4* and 5* rating. All types of badges, group, events, trees, apple days, moots, uniform, jamboree, proficiency and, of course, districts and areas were to be had. For I think the first time at one of our swap meets we had a dozen youth visit from Beavers up and not only look around but also set up on a table. Linda had arranged for local scouter George Clarke and some of his Venturers from 18th Seymour to help with set up and take down as well as running a small concession with hot dogs, chips, pop, coffee and tea. A great event which we all attendees hope Linda will organize again next year.

Badger Gord's

Greetings from the cataloguer! Once again many club members have brought new issues and information on older badges to the attention of me and the Regional Badge Representatives. I have heard from John Witham, Steve Kavanagh, Robert Bowers, Peeter Tammark, Ian MacCalder and Linda Aug. My apologies to those not personally mentioned here.

There are some new finds and they are described in the catalogue updates but what follows are pictures of the old badge and new find so you can better understand the differences. First off is the "A" and "B" version of Chinook (ALTA C.4A and C.4B).

C.4.A is on the left

C.4.B is on the right

The Medicine Hat badge with the gold design (ALTA M.2.B) is on the left and the badge with the yellow design (ALTA M.2.C) is on the right.

The ASC Saint-Jean badge (ASC S.4.B and S.4.C differ in size. The claw of the bird in the design is also larger (and appears larger in every dimension) in the new find S.4.C badge.

One listing, or rather Delisting I wanted touch on was the East Vancouver badge (BC E.8.C) While the size difference including the writing is clearly different than the E.8.B issue Robert Bowers while browsing in the Vancouver Scout Shop found both versions within the same plastic bag. Hence the decision to simply note variation in size of badge and writing for the B issue. This makes me wonder about that elusive ONT S31d-large woven Sunnybrook 54x54mm badge!

Every issue there are a number of badge differences sent to us for listing decisions. Some are accepted as meeting the criteria and some are not. One interesting one we received the last while was Landing Trail (ALTA L.5.A) where the background colour in the triangle containing the road was considered significantly different. However, when several different runs of the badge were examined the colour was seen to vary from light blue (almost gray) to dark blue. As a result the existing description noting various shades of blue background was considered still the best way to cover the situation.

Not to scale.

I would also like to wish one and all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. May you find interesting pieces of cloth in your stockings!

At a recent BC Swap Meet (thanks Linda Aug for organising) I came across an interesting ASC Colombie Britannique anniversary badge. It is approximately the same size (just a little smaller) than the ASC C6/2A anniversary issue but at this time we are not sure if it was a jacket patch or worn on the uniform in the anniversary year so just showing it below to see if anyone knows something about it.

Remembrance Day has recently occurred and I thought I would share a couple of badges I recently acquired. The 2010 badge is one I have a few spares of if anyone is interested. The other is, of course, very significant to Newfoundlanders. I know little about the badge save I was happy to pick it up at a swap meet.

As I have said on other occasions I hope others also collect oddities as your collection is your collection and you can put anything you want into it! Not just listed badges.

I thank all who bring new badges to my attention. Keep it up! Please contact me with your finds or answers to questions at: ennisgl@telus.net.

I want to once again thank the Club's Regional Reps; Bill Thow, Michael Diegel, Chris Wootton, Steve Kavanagh, Robert Schmitt, Rheal Duchesne and John Butters. This said I have not heard from Robert lately. Does anyone know the best way to contact him?
