DEADLINE FOR SUBMISSIONS TO THE
March 2020 ISSUE:
Feb. 21, 2020

from the Prez

Greetings Fellow Badgers

As 2019 is coming to end and 2020 is just around the corner there hasn't been much new badge activity here on the east coast. The only recent new badge in Nova Scotia has been South West Nova. As we wait to see how Scouts Canada's new reorganization changes take root by eliminating areas and what affects this has on area badge production and of course collecting. I would like to take this time to wish everyone a safe Merry Christmas and Happy New Year Holliday season. Also here is hoping that Santa and Mrs. Santa leaves everyone many little colourful pieces of cloth in your sock or under the tree.

Ian MacCalder

From the Editor...

The picture on this issue's cover is just another something that some of us crazy people collect. Paperwork, books, magazines, hats, uniforms, blankets, neckers, flags, mugs, pins..... There are those among us that collect everything that is connected with Scouting. Doesn't have to be just badges. Then there are National, Provincial, District/Area, proficiency, events, camps, CJ. You name it, someone collects it.

I would like to thank Rheal Duchesne, our ASC rep. for his fantastic article on the history of the Association des Scouts du Canada.

Coming very shortly, (hopefully within a week) will be the new 9th edition of the Canadian Badgers Club variety listing. Everyone will be emailed a PDF copy. Those that do not have email, will have to make other arrangements if you wish it printed.

This issue starts my yearly grovelling for items for the Denis Charbonneau Memorial Swap Meet and Auction. Last year, we overcame the $100,000.00 mountaintop. We need donations to keep it fun and meaningful. John Witham was our largest benefactor for many years and his generosity will be missed.

Membership fees Membership fees Membership fees Membership fees

They are due again. Please remit by Dec. 31st. Membership costs are on the application form at the back of every magazine.

On behalf of the executive and everyone in the club, I would like to pass on our deepest condolences to John Witham's wife Bev, and all the family. John was my "go to" guy for any Scouting historical facts. I have pieces in my collection that came from John and they will be forever cherished. If you too would like a piece, see the add further in the magazine from his wife Bev about some of John's book collection that is now for sale.

“I have a hobby – trading and collecting little pieces of colourful cloth.”

“You what??!!” they say.

That is how I first tell people what I do when I go to jamborees, camporees, Scouting events and many other venues that provide an opportunity to trade badges.

All Badgers do things to promote our hobby but typically we just do them and never think to mention them.

Recently the Badgers Club was asked if we would provide a Group with contact information of the closest Badgers Club member to their community, to invite them to put on a display and talk to their youth and Scouters about badges.

The 1st Gondola Point Scouting Group, Quispamsis, New Brunswick was celebrating 50 years of Scouting.

Well, the closest Badgers lived 100 and 150 kilometers away from that community. The lack of actual display material along with health issues of one meant we'd have to say sorry and decline the invitation.

But just before doing so, I looked at the long-range weather forecast and decided that a 400 kilometer trip might be possible. I contacted John Butters and between us, made the decision and commitment to be there for the event at Meenan's Cove Community Centre.

John and I arrived at about the same time and went about setting up display material. There were about 40-50 people that attended and we were well received and thanked very, very much for travelling so far. Here are a few pictures.

I know that many of the Club members would have done the same thing, if asked, so no big deal on our parts. But let's share such badging events when they happen. Let's promote our hobby. Take pictures, and send a brief write-up when you do swap meets, tradorees, youth events, Area events or even a Jamboree. They inspire!

Yours in Badging,

Don Connors and John Butters

Greetings from the cataloguer! This issue I have heard from Frank Smith, Rheal Duchesne, Geoff Pinkerton, Marc Couturier, Don Connors, Steve Kavanagh and a few other badgers about new or old issues. My apologies to those not personally mentioned here.

Last issue I talked about unofficial comments that Areas may cease to exist. Indeed, Scouts Canada has now moved to a Group Service management format. This said, from what I can figure out areas still exist but now seem to have no function, with no area volunteers being appointed by the Councils (and even existing ones removed from their roles). So, Scouts Canada has announced that scouts are to still wear the Area badge to identify what geographic area they are from but that is as far as it goes. This year it looks like regardless of the “official” take on things that former area staff (at least from some areas I have personal knowledge of) are still carrying out some area-wide activities such as area camps, and other special events but I wonder how long that will last. Catalogue-wise it means we will not be calling Areas extinct (as they are not extinct if badges are still to be worn on the uniform). I will look on with interest re any new runs of area badges being produced.

This issue of The Canadian Badger has fewer than normal listings; or at least fewer than in the last several years. Some of this must relate to the changes taking place in Scouts Canada. Also, there have been some “new finds” reported to me and others but some are only being dealt with via a “note” in the listing. Others are undergoing further review.

One badge not listed but interesting is a Quebec one from St. Maurice Valley (QC S9) that is in my collection. I don't know what it is but maybe it fits between the “A” and “B” listing. Then again maybe not. Does anyone know anything about this badge?

While I am on the subject of oddities I thought I would show one of my BC provincial badges. It is an unlisted used ribbon – you can see the stitch marks if you look closely. Someone thought it might be a bleached BC 1B issue but that cannot be the case as the sun is red as is the wavy line (which, by the way, represents the Fraser River), and in the listed badge these are white.

I thought I would show an image of all the Voyageur Council badges since we are listing a new one that is actually similar to the “C” issue but smaller. Anyway, this will allow you to see all the variations in one image.

Somehow over the years we neglected to list an ASC Jamboree badge. The badge is the 2008 JAMBOREE A-VENT-UR that is in many collections, mine included. That has now been listed in this issue. We have put it in its proper spot in the sequence which has resulted in renumbering of the last two jamborees. I know this drives some crazy but there we go. And while on the subject of ASC badges the newly listed old find Diocese Saint Paul is an Alberta badge!

I thank all who bring new badges or badge questions to my attention. Keep it up! Please contact me with your finds or answers to questions at: ennisgl@telus.net.

I want to once again thank the Club's Regional Reps; Bill Thow, Michael Diegel, Chris Wootton, Steve Kavanagh, Robert Schmitt, Don Connors and Rheel Duchesne.

Association des Scouts du Canada, History in the making

Throughout my years with the club, I been asked many times for clarification concerning our ASC badges. Now that I have time, I've decided to write this article about them. But first with a little bit of our history, I hope you'll come to understand how and when our badges came to be.

As we all know, Scouting started out in England and it did catch on all over the World. In Canada this came to life in 1910 with Baden Powell's first visit. At this time the Canadian General Council of the Boy Scouts Association was created and recognized. They were also the French-Canadian boys and they wanted in but had to join the English troops.

In the years ahead, in 1918 we saw the first French-Canadian Troop, the 41st Notre Dame of Ottawa and they became part of the Boy Scouts. As the years kept advancing other French-Canadian troops were formed, but none affiliated with the Boy Scouts. The French clergy at that time wanted to be independent and have equal status to that of the Boy Scouts Council. This was not to happen yet or anytime in the near future.

Meanwhile in French Canada, troops were forming all over the country. But it wasn't until 1928 that we saw the first official recognized group by the French Clergy. With five French-Canadian troops on hand, they became known as the Federation Catholiques des Eclaireurs Canadien-Francais. In Quebec we also saw two other organisations in place, the Association des Scouts Catholiques du Diocese de Trois-Rivieres also in 1928 and the Scouts Catholiques de Quebec in 1931. Even with all these organizations and members, the French-Canadians weren't recognized by the Boy Scouts.

Then Msgr. Villeneuve had a great idea, regroup everyone, form a new organization and then approach the Boy Scouts. This time to see what could be done in order to receive equal recognition and one as a French-Canadian Boy Scouts Association. It took many meetings and talks, then finally the Accord was signed but with conditions attached to it. French-Canadian Scouting would be affiliated, equal status to that of the Boy Scouts Council of Canada and only recognized in the Province of Quebec. The rest of Canada would have to wait to a much later time to become part of the Federation.

With this signing of the Accord in 1935, the new organization took on the name of, Federation des Scouts Catholiques de la Province de Quebec. Now they were able to run all their program in French with all the books, decorations, badges etc. etc. Now throughout the upcoming years they were allowed to use the programs and books from Les Scouts de France. From that they created their own version and adapted it for the French-Canadian catholic boy. Later in the 1940's and up to 1960 they became know as the Federation (also known as Federation Scouts Catholiques). At that time to be a member, you had to be a French-Canadian speaking boy and be a Catholic, as per the Clergy which ruled everything at that time period.

With the Clergy partly in charge, a new name was in order and with a signing by Governor General Georges Vanier, the new name became, Association des Scouts Catholiques du Canada and that in 1961, also known as (Scouts Catholiques-Canada).

As the years went on, again following many meetings and talks things changed once again. Many members voiced their opinion that the organization was prejudging its members, limiting its membership and not allowing boy of other faith to join. The Clergy lost their grip and were no longer the driving force. Being the Queen's representative for Boy Scouts in Canada, once again Governor General Georges Vanier was called on to sign a new accord which took on the name that we all know now, Association des Scouts du Canada and that was in 1967. Now religion, belief, nationality, are no longer a prerequisite to join the French-Canadian Scouting Association.

Again with all that being said we come to the ASC and pre-ASC badge listings, let me try and help you with this. You will note that most, but not all our ribbon badges and some canvas badges date back a long way. Many of them have Diocese attached to their name and date back to our beginnings when the Clergy was in charge. We have in the catalog, new listings of pre-ASC badges from this era. Now if we want to be technical or official about it, any and all badges predating 1961 are in fact pre-ASC badges. Our official title of the Association didn't come until the signing in 1961, where we took on the new name of Association des Scouts Catholiques du Canada (Scouts Catholiques-Canada). At the beginning when the club(s) were listing ASC badges many of this information was not looked into and or available, that is why the badges are listed the way they are.

Hopefully this article will help the members understand the listings and how they came to be. I know that on my part, I will probably never see all the badges that were and are part of our history or know anyone who has them all, but this won't stop me from trying to find them. Anyone with information or badges that they think may be ASC can please send me a scan and I will try to find out, first what they are and when they came to be.

I'm presently working on putting a catalog together, of all the pre-ASC, ASC badges I know of and that are related to our organization. It will contain dates for some Dioceses, Districts, Anniversary, Jamborees etc. from what I have found out from history and books so far. I'm hoping to have it ready by next spring and bring it to the Montreal Swap Meet, for everyone to see. Anyone out there that may have something new, please let me know so I can add them to the catalog if I can find the proof that they indeed belong with the ASC.

All info and scans can be sent to my email address; rhealduchesne@hotmail.com

Dear Don & Badger Club Members;

I hope this letter finds you well. I would like to acknowledge that we have received a recent donation from The Canadian Badger's Club in the amount of $778.00 in support of the World Brotherhood Fund, and am extending our gratitude for such generosity.

This gift enables us to continue with our mission of providing youth with a place to be themselves; offering a true opportunity for all girls and boys to belong to a group that builds lifelong friendships, imparts important life skills, and embarks on memorable adventures. Your contribution ensures more kids from across Canada can experience all that Scouting has to offer. Thank you for giving Canadian youth the building blocks to be better prepared for success in the world.

It's truly inspiring what can happen when kids are given the opportunity to let go of their stresses and their worries, and instead, just focus on being kids. To us, your support means a great deal; but to our Scouting youth, it means everything.

If you have any questions about your gift, please do not hesitate to reach out to me directly at my coordinates enclosed.
