ficial receipt is on the next page. We will be back next year (hopefully), in Montreal. Hotel is booked and I will post up a link to that info in the December and March magazine.

Elsewhere in the magazine is a writeup on the presentation of a lifetime membership to our long-standing Vice-President, Ralph Williams. Congrats, my friend. Our cover is the actual

I am working on changing the masthead of the magazine to correspond with out official club name change. It might take a while as I don't know how to do it yet.....

May 7, 2022 was a lovely sunny day in Halifax as we prepared to drive to St. Stephens, New Brunswick for a presentation on behalf of the Canadian Badgers Memorabilia Club.

At our recent AGM held Sunday May 1, 2022 via Zoom, a motion was passed to present Ralph Williams, our past Vice President for twenty-nine years, with a Lifetime Membership Award.

John Butters drove down from Oromocto, New Brunswick to meet up with my wife and I to do the presentation, as prearranged with Ralph's wife, Ruth.

Most of us had no idea of just how sick Ralph is, as you might detect yourself from the picture. But, as Ruth told us later, for the short time that we were there, Ralph seemed to really perk up.

Hopefully the Canadian Badgers Memorabilia Club made his day!

Frank D. Smith, past president May 8 2022.

Greetings from the cataloguer! This issue I have heard from Don Connors and Steve Kavanagh regarding new finds.

A new find Turtle Mountain District badge from Manitoba turned up. We are calling it MAN T.6.D It is different from the other round C version in the placement of the two lakes and the ragged nature of the lake. While this might look like shoddy work it is actually more similar to the lakes in the A and B versions of Turtle Mountain.

The other new find was a rolled edge Harbour West badge from Nova Scotia. There is proof it was being worn on the uniform. No need to show it compared to the other Harbour West as it is the only rolled edge version although there are other differences too, primarily in the colours.

A few other interesting items have turned up. Below is a national strip that is embroidered on grey. A grey uniform was an option in the 1930's and 1940's (and I received the strip from a gentleman in his 90's) so I suspect that is the era. What I am not clear on is whether the strip was embroidered on the uniform or if it was a separate strip sewn on. So will need to wait and see before pursuing further. Does anyone else know anything about this?

Two other interesting badges have turned up that, while not being listed are different. One is Moira Valley. The thickness of the maple leaf stem and the maple leaf itself show variations in the rounded corner O.N.T. M.2.D variety. But it turns out there are a gradation of differences (not just the two shown) so a decision was made not to pursue listing.

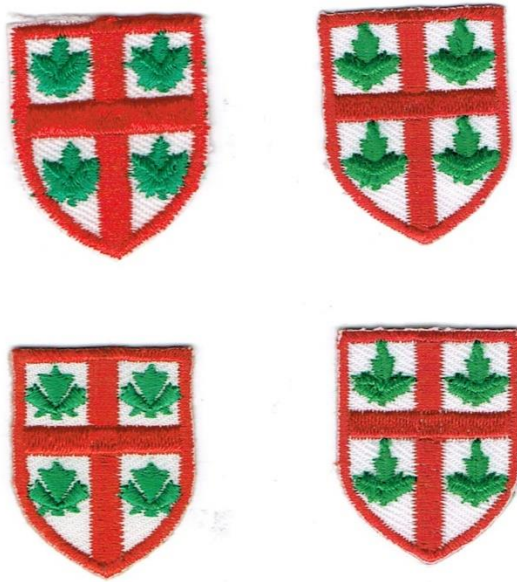

Finally, another Manitoba badge is shown below. This is MAN P.3.C The new one to me is on the right and the cut edge is different in that the white is outside the yellow colour of the edge. The two thwarts of the canoe are much more obvious too and the background is much whiter. So those who collect sub-varieties might be on the lookout for these two versions of the badge.

I also know there is at least one more ASC badge out there that will be listed. It is a smaller version of the Ouest Badge so be on the lookout for it. But until more information is available stay tuned for the actual listing.

Before I close, I thought I would show some of my Anglican Church of Canada NAT 25.A badges. It seems every time I get one it is a little different than another one of these small badges. How many sub-variations are out there!

I thank all who bring new badges or badge questions to my attention. Keep it up!
Please contact me with your finds or answers to questions at: ennisgl@telus.net.

I want to thank once again the Club's Regional Reps; Michael Diegel, Chris Wootton, Steve Kavanagh, Robert Schmitt, Don Connors, Rheal Duchesne and Frank Smith.
